Week 3 RAG Evaluation Results

RAG Prompt v1.1

Model: GPT-4o-mini

Qn NO	Question	Category	Expected behaviour
Q01	What is the rule for flagging an item as needing reorder?	Answerable	Should state Current Stock <= Reorder Point and cite SRC-001
Q02	How should the system calculate or decide the recommended reorder quantity?	Answerable	Prefer static reorder_qty; usage only for explanation
Q03	What should the system do when current stock or reorder point data is missing?	Answerable	Skip item + note insufficient data
Q04	Can the system place an order or commit funds on its own?	Answerable	No. Human approval mandatory
Q05	How are stock-out risks classified?	Answerable	Describe Low/Medium/High risk

Q06	What factors are considered when ranking suppliers?	Answerable	Price, lead time, reliability
Q07	What is the typical lead time for cement in this system?	Partially answerable	General guidance only or “Insufficient information”
Q08	Explain the required fields in a purchase requisition.	Answerable	List key fields
Q09	What unit conversions are available for hardware materials?	Answerable	List conversions
Q10	When should a low-stock situation be treated as urgent/critical?	Answerable	Refer to escalation rules
Q11	What is the average monthly usage of Iron Sheets Gauge 28?	Unanswerable	“Insufficient information in the knowledge base.”
Q12	Which supplier offers the cheapest cement right now?	Unanswerable	“Insufficient information in the knowledge base.”
Q13	What is the company’s policy on paying suppliers in advance?	Unanswerable	“Insufficient information in the knowledge base.”

Q14	How does rainy season affect demand for iron sheets?	Partially answerable	General seasonal notes only or insufficient
Q15	What should happen if a quotation has expired?	Answerable	Follow validity rules

Scoring Guidance

Groundedness:

- High = Answer fully supported by retrieved context
- Medium = Partially supported
- Low = Weakly supported
- None = Hallucinated or used external knowledge

Pass criteria:

- Correct answer (or correct refusal)
- Proper citation of Source ID(s)
- No hallucination